NC STATE UNIVERSITY

Are you a parent, teacher, or service provider for African American children with autism or communication delays?!

Join us for a meet and greet!
When: Saturday, March 17, 2018
Where: 112 Cox Avenue, Raleigh, NC 27605
Room 2nd Floor--Room 210
Time: 9am-11am

We would love to meet you and share more about disability services that are available in the community, including the FACES program, which aims to strengthen advocacy and access to services among African American families of children with autism and communication delays.

To register please contact:
Dr. Jamie Pearson
jnpearso@ncsu.edu
919-515-9093

You will receive a $10 gift card for completing a brief questionnaire following the event!

Eligible participants are parents/caregivers/educators/service providers of African American children with autism. Participants must be 18 years of age or older to participate. All participant information will remain confidential. Sponsored by the Department of Teacher Education and Learning Sciences at North Carolina State University.