More Than Seeds: Digging Deep to Find Our Resilience, Our Beauty, and Our Value

Wednesday, April 7, 2021 • 4:00 p.m. Eastern
VIRTUAL, FREE, & OPEN to the public.

"They tried to bury us. They didn't know we were seeds."

Widely known as the battle cry of indigenous Mexican activists, Greek poet Dinos Christianopoulos' defiant words are frequently quoted in social justice circles.

Are they also applicable to the autism community?

PLEASE JOIN US to hear Morénike Giwa Onaiwu, a global self-advocate, educator, author, and parent on the autism spectrum, highlight attributes of autism, examine them from a neurodiversity lens, and explore concepts of individual and collective worth.
