The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families

“The Struggle Between Light and Dark”
-Age 16
“I learned how to ride my big bike. I love that my family takes a walk every night. I like feeling the fresh air when I ride down the hill.” – Age 7
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families

“Confinement time during COVID-19: e-learning at home”
-Age 12

“Confinement time during COVID-19: time with cousins”
-Age 12
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families

“Doctor Friend”

“Healthcare Friend”
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families

“Teacher Mister”

“Teacher Miss”
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families

“No title, he is just very into trains/all technical things...”
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families

“A Prayer to Stay Healthy”
-Age 32
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families

“Zoom Glitch Frustration”
-Age 6
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families

“Cooking During Quarantine ”
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families

“Battle of Olustee”
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families

“How My Face Looks

Words to Describe How I Feel:
I feel sad about not seeing my friends and the coronavirus

“Coronavirus Feelings”
-Age 9
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families

“...three thoughts consistently plaguing my mind as things progress”

-Age 23
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families

“Brave and Afraid”
-Age 16
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families

“Lollipops”
-Age 3 ½
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families

"SONIC THE HEDGEHOG"
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families

“Struggling with COVID-19 Quarantine ”
-Age 10
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families
The world during the COVID-19 pandemic from the points of view of individuals with autism and ADHD and their families

“Learning about Metamorphosis”
- Age 5